Who we are

Giulia Secci

I'm Giulia, I deal with digital marketing, social media management and SEO copywriting. I am passionate about cinema and film and I love traveling, I take pictures of everything I see. My gaze and that of the camera often become one thing.

Gianluca Largiu

I'm Gianluca, I create content for our website and for others. I love to write and travel and even more I love to write about travel. I also like to read and stay informed about the travel world, but in general I am a book lover, in particular novels by great authors and manuals of history.

Website and Magazine

ExpressYourTravel was created to offer complete and detailed city guides, with advice on what to see, where to eat, how to get around, where to sleep and much more.

Together with the guides we also publish articles about the most varied themes, such as travel advice and information, specific events, travel itineraries, particular museums, festivals and traditions, activities and experiences to do in a specific place and much more.

Who are our readers

Our readers are italian travelers who like to organize their own trips according to their needs. We offer to them complete and detailed guides in order to facilitate and speed up the preparation of a travel itinerary, without neglecting anything. See an example of our guides. →

Our readers are also travelers looking for inspiration for a new trip and they usually do it with our blog articles. Here you will find special places, more or less known cities, important museums, travel experiences, itineraries, events, tips and much more.
